Background: AttSaul Arts and Culture Forum was established in Atteridgeville/Saulsville (Phelindaba) township of Tshwane to develop and create opportunities for our community especially youth in arts, culture and the heritage sector. Registered in 2015, the forum aims to develop and assist in job creation for the artists. With these initiatives we hope to contribute towards assisting the government to achieve its National Development Plan (NDP). The beneficiaries of these initiatives will be Atteridgeville, Saulsville, and Lotus gardens arts and culture organisations, practitioners and the community at large, we would like to form partnership with other Forums from other sectors to join hands with us in partnership to make a success of this empowerment dream. With all indicated above, the forum aims to reach its goal: "To empower the community and its youth to gain meaningful entry into arts and culture industry locally, regionally, nationally and internationally".
